

The Names of Love

A Retreat with Murshid Wali Ali

with Abraham and Halima Sussman

San Diego, CA

February 12 – February 14, 2010

Murshid Wali Ali Meyer is a gifted teacher and guide in the journey of awakening. He is the director of the esoteric school of the Sufi Ruhaniat International and is a master teacher of the Walks of Murshid Samuel Lewis and the Dances of Universal Peace. Wali Ali carries the blessing and transmission of Murshid Sam, the founder of the Dances of Universal Peace. Wali Ali received an M.A. in Philosophy and Theology from Vanderbilt University and edited many of Murshid Sam's published writings. It brings him great joy when he can share the power of love, which is awakened by Grace, and see the face of the Divine Beloved in all. Currently he is co-authoring a book on the Beautiful Names of God, exploring ways to work with the Divine attributes or wazaif to overcome the soul's sense of separation from God.

In the traditions of the Sufis, it is said that the Divine Beloved can be known by many names. Each name, or divine attribute, can be a doorway into the Infinite Presence. This non-residential weekend retreat will focus on the names of Love, inviting each participant into an experience of this all-pervading Reality. The weekend will also include Dances of Universal Peace, Walks, Zikr, and contemplation.

This weekend is open to all, but previous experience with Dances of Universal Peace or Sufi practices in the tradition of Hazrat Inayat Khan or Murshid Samuel Lewis will allow participants to relax into the teachings and have a deeper experience.

Halima and Abraham Sussman will be assisting Wali Ali with leading and with musical accompaniment. Abraham and Halima are Senior Mentor Teachers of the Dances and Walks and Senior Teachers in the Sufi Ruhaniat International. They bring open hearts, a deep love for the practices, and a wealth of experience to share.
